

You are invited to Join VCASE!

The Virginia Council of Administrators of Special Education (VCASE) is an organization for professionals involved in providing leadership to and administering services for students with disabilities.

You are invited to join your special education colleagues in the State of Virginia in Creating Opportunities and Shaping the Future for students with disabilities. Membership includes directors, supervisors, specialists in special education, university personnel and other professionals interested in the field of special education. As a VCASE member, you'll receive:

- A Periodic Newsletter, providing current state and local updates
- Report of State Task Force Activities
- Representation on the State Council of Directors of Special Education
- Opportunities to participate in two well-organized, informative conferences.

Your participation and leadership is important. For just $35.00, you can demonstrate your leadership in and support for VCASE. Join your colleagues today!
